Title: In a Restaurant

Last Sunday, Jane and Joe were looking at the Yummy World website to see different restaurants for lunch. Jane and Joe chose River Restaurant for lunch because it wasn't so expensive. Jane and Joe thought the food would be delicious, but it was as disgusting as a cockroach.

When Jane and Joe arrived at the restaurant, they looked at the menu and discussed what to order. The food looked delicious. They were excited about it.

Ten minutes later, when Jane and Joe's food came, both of them lost appetite. Their food was unhygienic and as stinky as a landfill. Joe wanted to tell the staff about this, but they were too 'busy'

Jane told a waitress about the food and she took the food away. Jane and Joe didn't want to eat in River Restaurant anymore. They left the restaurant and went to a dim sum restaurant instead.
