

Little Writers (Online version)

Name: Amber Ho (11)

Class: P. 6C (Faith)

Title: A New Fairy tale - Snow White & a helping friend

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful princess who lived in a massive palace in Magical Land. The princess's skin was as white as snow. Therefore, the king and queen named her Snow White.

One morning, the weather was warm, so Snow White wanted to go out with her best friend, Jack, a student in Magical School. But, she couldn't find her glass shoes. So she ran out of her room to find her shoes.

Meanwhile, Mr. Wolf, a jealous man passed by the palace. He heard Snow White crying for help. So, he came up with a plan. He made a custom pair of magical glass shoes that were under a spell. The glass shoes would make Snow White non-stop running and ran away from Magical Island so Mr. Wolf could be the king of that place. Mr. Wolf had a grin on his face.

Mr. Wolf finished making the magical shoes and put them next to Snow White's bed. When Snow White came back to her room, she saw the funny looking magical shoes. She thought it looked weird but she didn't care. So she put on the shoes and ran into the forest to find Jack.

Suddenly, Snow White couldn't stop running. She ran up a hill and past the forest. She yelled "Help! I can't stop running!" Jack heard Snow White so he threw his magic beans in some soil and poured a cup of water on it. "Ting Tang Wala Wing Wang!" he said. The magical beans immediately grew into a huge beanstalk. Jack flew up to the beanstalk and saw Snow White. Once again, he screamed loudly "Stop the running shoes!" Snow White stopped running.

At last, Mr. Wolf was arrested because he was too focused on Snow White and didn't think about how to get in the palace. Jack said to Snow White "Friends should help each other when they need help!" Snow White was touched and hugged Jack. And they lived happily ever after.

