Title: Grandma's Birthday Party

Grandma's birthday is today. She is 68 years old. I go to the supermarket. I buy a birthday cake, 9 lollipops, 9 tubs of ice-cream, 3 packets of chips, 9 cupcakes and 5 cartons of orange juice.

Dad and Mum make many balloons. I make presents. I am very excited because I want Grandma to be happy.

The birthday party is at Epic Land. First, we eat the birthday cake. I say, 'Happy Birthday, Grandma.' Grandma is very happy. She is also very excited because I give a very big present to her. The present is a piano. My family and my friends are happy too.

At last we play on the long slide and the black hole. We climb on the slide. Grandma also climbs too. At last we play the piano. Grandma and Grandma are very good at playing the piano. We love the birthday party very much.
