Title: Grandma's Birthday Party

My Grandma's birthday is on Monday. She is forty-nine years. I buy some party food in Hong Kong Supermarket. I buy ice-cream, potato chips, candies and a birthday cake.

My mum is in the kitchen. I am there too. I feel happy because I have all my cousins coming. I ask Mum, 'Where is the birthday party?' My mum replies, 'It is at home.' The party has beautiful music. We play musical statues. We love eating party food. I like watching magic shows. I give my grandma a present. She opens the present. She is surprised. It is a handbag. We are all happy and excited. We turn off the lights and we ask Grandma to close her eyes. She smells something yummy. We ask her open her eyes and we sing, 'Happy Birthday, Grandma.'

We have a great time on Grandma's birthday party.
