Title: Grandma's Birthday Party

Grandma's birthday is on Saturday. She is ninety years old. I go to the supermarket to buy things. I buy a birthday cake, two tubs of ice-cream, a pizza, chili hot dogs and popcorns.

Dad and Mum make balloons for the living room, the bedrooms and the dining room. I feel excited and happy. The birthday is in the cinema. I eat popcorn, play musical chairs and play hide-and-seek. I say, 'Happy birthday, Grandma!' My Grandma feels happy. My family feel happy too.

In the end, I give a present to Grandma. It is a toy bear. Grandma is happy right now. She says, 'I love this toy bear!' We love Grandma and Grandma loves us too! At last we go back home. We love each other forever.
