Title: Ann and the Treasure Box

One day, Ann and her friends went to a beach to play. They brought a bucket, shovels and swimming suits. They were building a sandcastle. They were having fun.

While they were having fun building, they saw a big box floating in the sea! Ann said, "Look! There is a big box. I'll go to pick it up." Her friends said, "OK, Ann. You can pick it up."

Ann went to the box and picked it up. "Wow! This box is very heavy. I can't pick it up alone." Ann's friend went to help Ann carry the box.

After they picked it up, they opened it. To their surprise, there were cute baby sea turtles hatching and little diamonds! Ann's friends said, "Good idea! Looks like these cute little turtles were here for some time!" Then they set the baby turtles free and took a bit of those diamonds as a reward for saving some cute turtles.
