Title: Ann and the Treasure Box

Ann and her friends went to the beach to celebrate Ann's birthday. They felt excited. They were building a really big sandcastle. To finish it, they put a small flag on top.

After building several more sandcastles, Ann saw something. It was big. It was old. "Woah!" Ann said, "What's that?!" Ann's friend said, "It's just a box..." "Or is it? Let's see what's inside!" said Ann's other friend.

Later they finally carried the box onto the sand. All of the children felt very excited. "It's unlocked!" When they opened the box, they found..."Sticks!?" yelled Ann.

But under all the sticks they found one bar of gold! "Hooray!" said everyone. And they were always happy after that.
