

Little Writers

Name: Lydia

Class: P. 4A

Title: Cheating in the Exam

It was exam day; Anna was getting ready for her exam. She was doing revision. It was difficult to memorize all the words. She tried to memorize the words but she just couldn't. So she used the rest of the class making cheat sheets, and hid them in her pencil case.

The exam started, she was doing well but then she suddenly forgot how to write 'hamster'. She opened her pencil case and took out the cheat sheet while nobody was looking. She felt really nervous, because she was scared that Mr. Wong would see her and put her in detention.

A few minutes later, Mr. Wong discovered that Anna was cheating. Mr. Wong slowly approached Anna, and said, "Anna, how dare you cheat on the exam!" Then Anna said, "Sorry, Mr. Wong, I won't cheat again." Then, Mr. Wong took Anna's cheat sheet away.

A few days later, the exam papers were handed out. Anna got an F- because she cheated. After she cheated, she didn't want to cheat anymore because she doesn't want to have bad grades. Anna learned that cheating is bad, and she also learned that the only way to get high grades is to study hard.