Title: An outing

Last weekend, Ann and her parents went to Monlee Park to have a picnic. At the picnic, they ate sandwiches. Ann enjoyed the picnic. They all felt relaxed. Ann's mom asked, "Would you like some juice?" Ann answered, "No, thanks."

A monkey was hiding behind a tree the whole time. It was looking for food because it was very hungry. The monkey thought to himself, "Maybe if I call my friends, we would get the food quicker and easier." So it called its friends and planned what they were going to do.

The monkeys ran closer. Ann and her family were shocked. The monkeys attacked them and stole their food. Ann's parents wanted to stop them but it was too late, they already escaped.

The family was devastated by how the monkeys stole their food. A worker came and asked, "What happened?" They answered, "The monkeys stole our food." The worker smiled and said, "Those monkeys are always trouble."
