Title: A Diary

Cloudy

4th November, 2020

This morning, I joined the school game called Touch and Guess. It took place in the school hall. Ben, Susan, and I joined the game. We went on the stage and saw students and parents sitting down by the stage. Mr Chan said, 'Welcome to the Touch and Guess game!' and he said a lot of things about the game. My heart was beating since I was nervous. It was my first time.

The game started, Susan went first. She put her hand in a box. After a while, she knew the answer. She shouted, 'It's a teddy bear!' The people were happy. Susan's father shouted, 'Yes!' Mr Chan said, 'You were right! And the teddy bear is for you!' Susan was surprised! I felt happy for her but I was worried.

Then, it was Ben's turn. He was so excited that he ran to the box and put his hand inside. 'Ouch!' he yelled. Then he took a breath. 'mmm...I think I know what it is. Is it a pineapple?' he guessed. 'Yes, you are right! It is for you!' Mr Chan said. 'Hooray, pineapple is my favourite!' Ben shouted.

Finally, it was my turn. I wondered if it is something I like. I am really interested in cars. I carefully put my hand in the box. I felt something hard. First, I thought it was a toy car. I was over the moon. When I was ready to say the answer, I touched the hard thing again. Wait! It was large. I lifted the thing inside the box, it was heavy! Oh! I thought it was not a car. I felt sad. Everyone got what they wanted in the box, why not me? Soon, time passed, Mr Chan asked, 'You still have two minutes,'

I tried my best to think. 'Book' I said sadly. I hate reading. 'Correct! It is for you!' Mr Chan said. I looked at the front cover of the book. It was about cars! I couldn't be happier. I learnt a lot of things about cars. Through this game, I learned that books are very important things.
