Title: An outing

Ann and her parents had an outing last weekend because they hadn't had a picnic for a long time. They went to Riverside Country Park for the picnic. The sun was shining, the flowers were bright. Ann helped her parents set the picnic up. There were so many different kinds of food such as sandwiches, garlic bread and much more! Everyone was relaxed and happy. Everything was perfect. Nothing could go wrong!

While everyone was eating and chatting happily, there was an animal moving around the bushes. It could smell the amazing food. Then, it jumped out of the bushes onto a tree nearby, and that animal was a monkey! When it saw the spotless food, it couldn't take its eyes off it. It quickly told the other monkeys about the food and they had to make a plan.

When Ann grabbed a sandwich and was ready to eat it, the crew of monkeys jumped out of nowhere and snatched the sandwich out of Ann's hand. Ann screamed and shouted, "Mom! Dad! Monkeys!" The monkeys quickly grabbed everything as fast as they could.

Ann and her parents ran away from the picnic, they ran to the car and drove. While Ann was in the car, she frowned and said, "I'm still hungry, where will we go now?" Ann's mother replied, "We go back home. Let's just eat a quick dinner and watch a movie." Ann and her parents sighed and stayed quiet for the whole ride.
