

Little Writers (Online version)

Name: Kwok Tyler (10)

Class: P. 5C (Faith)

Title: An outing

Ann had a very frightening and sad experience last week. She was as scared as a mouse that didn't dare leave its mouse hole.

It was a sunny Sunday afternoon when Ann and her parents were having a picnic. They chose a comfortable, cozy and warm place to sit. They had this picnic because it was Ann's birthday. They went to a wildlife park since Ann loves nature. They brought a lot of yummy food like bread, sandwiches, hamburgers, dumplings, and cupcakes. The smell smelt as good as the most delicious food in the world.

When they were relaxing and chatting happily, the smell of the food made the monkeys come near them. They were chatting too loud so they didn't hear the monkeys coming closer. They monkeys thought, "I'm hungry. Finally, there is some food, mmmm!"

The monkeys ran closer and attacked Ann and her parents. Ann was scared that she stayed closer to her dad. Her dad said, "Go away! Shoo! Shoo!" However, the monkeys did not care. They took everything and escaped.

Ann was sad, tears rolled down her cheeks. Her parents did not know what to do. At last, they went and found some ripe berries and made a whole berry mountain. Her mom and dad sang Happy Birthday to her and she ate the berry mountain. She felt a bit happier but she still said, "This is the worst birthday ever."

