

Little Writers (Online version)
Name: Tang Ho Yin Justin (18)
Class: P. 6A (Love)
Title: An Unforgettable Day

Last weekend, I had an unforgettable day with my lovely family. The weather was glorious, so we decided to go hiking at Lion Country Park. We prepared a lot of food for our picnic too. I was so excited about it.

When we arrived at the country park, we tried to find a spotless place to have a rest. Luckily, we found a wonderful place with many beautiful flowers, butterflies and dragonflies. Mum and my sister were too hungry, so they ate first. Dad and I went to take some photos of the peaceful nature. The flowers were appealing. Then we had a quick picnic and enjoyed the scenery.

Awhile later, we walked to a magnificent waterfall. The water was clear. I asked my parents, 'Can my sister and I play in the water?' My dad replied 'You can't play in the water. It's too dangerous!' I felt very disappointed but my dad said let's take a picture with the waterfall.

Since the sky started to turn dark, Mum suggested going back home or having dinner at a shopping mall. Dad chose to dine out and he brought us to have a buffet at a hotel. The food was fresh and delicious. I really had a whale of time with my family.

