

Little Writers (Online version)

Name: Wong Hoi Ching Henrietta (19)

Class: P. 6C (Love)

Title: A Letter to My Cousin

Dear Tom,

How are you? You won't believe it; I went to a film studio yesterday for my first time. Let me tell you about it.

I was excited because I met my favourite actor. I didn't blink my eyes once because I really like his movies. I was amazed as he could do such difficult scenes. I was way too excited and kept clapping my hands.

'Good job!' I shouted. At that moment, the film director was looking at me with an angry face and cried, 'Cut!' I was upset because of what I did but I still tried not to cry so that I wouldn't disturb them again. The costume designer comforted me and pointed to a door and smiled. 'Don't feel bad, girl. Come with me. You'll love it.'

I followed the costume designer and got into a small dressing room. I asked, 'Nothing fun here, why do you bring me here?' She didn't reply but brought out a nice costume for me to try on. I quickly got changed and felt so surprised! I looked so beautiful!

After a few minutes, the cameraman came to us and asked, 'Jenny, the film director would like to invite to act a part in our film. Do you want to join?' I was shocked and I surely accepted the offer. After filming, I could even keep the costume! I was so delighted!

I had so much fun at the film studio yesterday! From this experience, I have learnt not to disturb others next time.

Tom, do you want to go with me to the film studio next week? Hope you can reply soon.

Love,

Jenny